

FÉDÉRATION INTERNATIONALE DE L'AUTOMOBILE

Heritage Certificate

Vehicle Manufacturer BMW Model 3.0 CSL Year 1971
Identifying mark or chassis N° 2211373 Engine N° 2211373

chassis stamped number

The FIA has received evidence that the above-mentioned vehicle :

- (i) has existed continuously as a complete car since it was first built by the manufacturer whose name it carries, and
- (ii) was first built in the appropriate year, and
- (iii) either (a) has a chassis/VIN number which was allocated to it when new by the manufacturer, or
(b) has a history entirely consistent with the absence of a chassis/VIN number giving rise to no reasonable doubt as to its authenticity.

The FIA Heritage Committee has assessed the evidence, is of the opinion that the car identified is the vehicle it purports to be, and has accordingly issued this certificate.

Number: HC 031

Issued on: 15 June 2007
